"It was truly the best year of my life- a positive experience in personal, social, and mental growth. Going to Spain enabled me to improve my Spanish-speaking skills, and then get a job teach Spanish-speaking students."

How to Make It Happen

- Start your journey by watching "First Steps" at pao.ucsd.edu
- Search for your perfect program at pao.ucsd.edu
- Meet with a Programs Abroad advisor to discuss your goals and plan your trip
- Search for courses that may fulfill Human Development & other requirements to add to your Academic Planning Form
- Meet with your Human Development & college advisors

100% of Hum. Dev. students who took courses in their major abroad received or are in the process of receiving major credit.

Study Abroad as a Human Development Major?

It's not just about gaining intercultural skills, or developing self-confidence and independence by travelling the world...

It's more than improving your resume portfolio with international experience, or gaining skills that will help you compete in a global workforce...

Study Abroad can allow for experiential learning within your academic plan as a Human Development Major.

Study Abroad can increase your own self-awareness and contribute to your personal growth as a world citizen.

Study Abroad can foster civic engagement, broaden your horizons, and help you see the world through a different lens.

Make Study Abroad the best part of your UCSD experience!

A Smart Investment

Finance your trip of a lifetime by using your campus financial aid package and applying for grants & scholarships through our scholarship database (pao.ucsd.edu)

Financial Aid

Students often apply their financial aid packages toward study abroad, and over half of UCSD's study abroad participants receive financial aid.

Scholarships

UCSD students were awarded about $500,000 in study abroad scholarships last year, and the Programs Abroad Office offers workshops to help students prepare competitive scholarship essays.

The Journey Continues...

...and when you get back, the Programs Abroad Office can help you with:

The process of petitioning your courses for satisfying Human Development requirements

Marketing your global experiences for resumes, applications, and interviews

Connecting you to a network of other Study Abroad returnees and prospective students at UCSD and throughout the world
