Message of Support for International Faculty, Researchers, Staff, and Students
Impacted by Flooding in Libya

Dear UC San Diego International Community,

We are closely following the devastating flooding that impacted eastern Libya on 9/10/2023 in the wake of Storm Daniel. We hope that you, and your family and loved ones are well.

The UC San Diego community is here to provide support and connection to resources for those impacted by this unprecedented disaster. If you—or someone you know—need(s) support, please reference the Tritons Impacted by Events Abroad website for information on:

- Health & Wellness Support
- Academic Support
- Student Affairs
- Visa and Travel Information

You can also contact the International Students & Programs Office (istudents@ucsd.edu) or International Faculty & Scholars Office (ischolars@ucsd.edu) if you need any future assistance and support.

Be well!

Sincerely,

Tamara Cunningham, Assistant Vice Chancellor of Global Initiatives

Dulce Amor L. Dorado, Director, International Students & Programs Office

Roark Miller, Director, International Faculty & Scholars Office

Courtney Giordano, Senior Director, Strategic Global Initiatives

Kelly O'Sullivan Sommer, Global Initiatives Consultant
